VARIOUS ANGLES INDICATE POLITICS HOLDING BIG PLACE IN NOTED CASE

By DALE HARRISON (Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press) TRENTON, N. J., April 2. —(P).—The Mercer county grand jury, which saved Bruno Richard Hauptmann's life Tuesday night, called Gov. Harold H. Hoffman to testify today, and the belief grew swiftly that Haupt-mann again would escape the electric chair tomorrow night.

The jury investigating charges that Paul H. Wendel, rather than Hauptmann, committed the crime of the Sourland hills for which Hauptmann has been sentenced to die, also arranged to hear Attorney General David T. Wilentz the Hauptmann prosecutor; and there were unconfirmed reports that Dr. John F. Condon, the that Dr. John F. Condon, the Lindbergh ransom intermediary, also would be called.

The jury plunged into its renewed consideration of the Wendel case while charges were popping that Gov. Hoffman was blocking efforts to probe an allege assault on the caretaker at the Lindbergh's abandoned Hopewell estate—the place of the Lindbergh baby kidnaping — yesterday.

Awaiting call before the jury was Ellis Parker, the Burlington county detective chief whise private investigation of the Lindbergh baby murder let to the Wendel arrest. A guard stood beside Parker to prevent his talking with other witnesses while he was waiting to enter the jury room.

SAN FRANCISCO AREA MAN-AGER OF PENSION PLAN CHARGED WITH CRIMES

By SCOTT HERSHEY Associated Press Staff Writer

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 1.—(P)—
A written statement by Dr. F. E.
Townsend that "it looks to me as if there might be millions in it" was submitted today to the house committee investigating the Townsend old age pension plan.

The statement was made in a letter to Robert E. Clements, resigned national secretary and co-founder of the movement. In the letter Dr. Townsend urged sending out organizers to "obtain membership wholesale."

James R. Sullivan, the committee's counsel, commented that the reason Dr. Townsend did not want to replace Edward J. Margett, San Francisco area manager, as suggested by Clements, "was because Margett was one of the best producers."

There indictments returned agency to the conviction. Cavagan insisted an opposite the conviction.

Three indictments returned against Margett were submitted to the committee by Sullivan. He said two indictments charged grand larceny and the other in Kings county, Washington, charged him with "accepting the earnings on a

PEACE-MAKING

The present situation is bad enough, but it might be worse. In fact, it was worse in 1914.

What is the difference? Chiefly this—that there is more feeling of international responsibility than there was then, and better international organization to handle such matters as broken treaties and threatened wars.

There is hope in the informal negotiations among powers, regarding a settlement of the differences be- haps not so good for busitween France and Germany. This proves ladies wouldn't feel nature! If there was never anything to worry about.

If everybody in the werld was honest and respectable there wouldn't be any more use for keys to open locks with or for keyholes to look through.

It is less inconvenient to be locked out than what it is to be locked in, on account of there being more places to go.

In the old fashion days of castles and dundgeons keys used to be grate big things that couldn't go through a hole in your pocket for the simple reason that they wouldn't even go in your pockit but nowadays on account of science and inventions they are little smooth things that are often lost but seldom swallowed.

RATABLE TAKING HELD IN-VALID: USE OF SWEET GAS IS PROHIBITED

— A three-judge federal court today held invalid an order of the Railroad Commission enforcing ratable taking provisions of Texas gas conservation law taking law tak gas conservation law, but sustained a prohibition in the same law against use of sweet gas for manufacturing carbon black.

Both decisions were considered of great importance to Texas' program of conserving natural gas resources.

That on ratable taking regulations of the commission was in suits by the Texhoma Natural Gas company and the Consolidated gas company.

The E. C. Henderson company and the Portland Gasoline company had attacked provisions of the gas statute prohibiting use of sweet gas for carbon black.

The Texhoma and Consolidate the Portland Consolidate the Portland Consolidate the Portland Consolidate the Portland Consolidate Consolidate the Portland Consolidate Cons

ed companies, which produce gas, in the Texas Panhandle and sell it in Northern cities, claimed the state was without power to compel them to purchase ratably and thereby divide markets they had developed with those who had none.

The state argued that it had authority under police powers to enforce regulations giving each owner of gas property an equal op-portunity to recover his propor-tionate share from the common reservoir.

reservoir.

The opinion said a decree in accordance with plaintiff's application would be granted. The plaintiff's had asked a permanent injunction against orders of the commission enforcing ratable tak-Ing.

The opinion was written by United States District Judge Robert M. McMillan of San Antonio and concurred in by Circuit Judge J. C. Hutcheson of New Orleans and District Judge T. M. Kennerly of San Antonio. Long arguments were heard recently in Houston.

Powers of State. Discussing the powers of the state, the court said it might be possible for the legislature to pass a gross conservation law which would care for the rights and equities of all, but it had not done so in House Bill 266, the conservation statute.

Objections to the law included:
1. That it considered only wells actually drilled.

2. No cognizance was taken of

2. No cognizance was taken or undrilled territory.

The opinion said the complainants had been taking gas in an orderly manner, while some who favored regulation by the commission plan had been taking it expected.

Attorney General William Mc-Craw said the cases would be ap-pealed to the supreme court of the United States. He said the decis-ion did not decide permanently the proration question in the Panhan-die field.

"We are ready to take these cases to the supreme court for a decision on the proration phase of the law to determine finally whether the state of Texas has whether the state of Texas has the power to enforce proration on gas against these giant utility companies as it now has the power to prorate oil." McCraw said.

Assistant Attorney General Madden Hill said the effect of the decision was that the commission or cannot write a valid proration or twite a valid proration or twite a valid proration or twite a cannot write a valid proration or twite a proration order."

FOR BANK and BORROWER

We do not claim unfailing ability to anticipate success or failure for any business venture. But through our own experience, and that of other banks, we have learned to gauge, in some degree, the likelihood of success for enterprises of different types, in a community like ours. The likelihood naturally becomes greater when the borrower understands his business thoroughly and when his integrity is unquestionable.

With these factors of success in favor of a loan, we make it gladly—for its use is likely to mean profit to the borrower and safety to our depositors.

When our experience indicates the contrary, we feel that we are rendering a valuable professional service (without charge) in so advising the applicant for credit.

We look to such principles as these to help us keep money turning over for constructive loans at this Bank.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED ....

MU

As one great writer said—"Nothing is permanent but change"-and times have changed. Perhaps the ethical funeral director has been somewhat to blame for the gulfa common belief that their services were too expensive forthe family in moderate or humble circumstances. Perhaps even our advertising has been too vague because we tried to avoid a plain discussion of funerals, thinking with others that the subject was "tabooed."

Today many are securing peace of mind by looking the facts concerning funerals in the face, even as they consider the making of wills or the buying of insurance. We want every family in this city to realize that our service is within its means, that there is no need for arrangements that may imply any lack of respect on their part. We can assure you that your choice of casket and furnishings regulates the price. Our booklet-"Your Right to Know"-contains the facts that you should know upon this important subject. Will you phone, write, or call for it? No obligation, of course.

A SPRING-TIME CREAM

Today Miss Forbes gives you a formula for a cold cream suitable to these changing spring days. Make it your-self from her formula in to-day's Beauty Chats. If you want to make yourself cold cream light in texture but sufficiently neut out the nourishing to the skin formu and get druggist it up for you better yet, n it yourself.

I give it, th cleansing a nourishing stitute almo oil for the eral oil. T formula is as follows:

theat together in a small enamel saucepan five ounces of fine-grade mineral oil and one ounce of spermaceti and one ounce of white wax. In another enamel saucepan put three and a half ounces of plain boiled water or rosewater and one-quarter of an ounce of powdered boracic acid. The secret is in heating them slowly and not getting them toology and not getting them oil is taken from the heat the oil is taken from the heat the oil is taken from the heat the oil staken from the heat the oil water in the two solids melt into it. Both pans being now removed from the heat, you begin to pour the water into the oil very slowly, stirring and beating the mixture with a spoon. The more your stir and beat the better blended and the lighter and finer your cream.

As the mixture cools it congeals cult to move it about under the finger tips, the violet ray would be helpful. You can do the same thing yourself by massaging the scalp, but it will take a longer time to break up the stiffness and to get the scalp where the blood is circulating in it fully all the time. Be sure to discontinue or use only occasionally the ray treatment when you have the scalp supple enough to go on with it through the massage.

L. S.—You may easily keep it through the massage.

L. S.—You may easily keep your eyebrows darkened by using one of the soft pencils on them. Practice some so you darken only the hairs and not the skin. You will do better if you begin at the outer side, as you will be lifting each hair over the top of the pencil, where it picks up the color without any of it coming in contact with the skin. Shape the curved line afterward by pressing the brow between the thumb and finger tips. There are persons who prefer to have

stir and beat the better blended and the lighter and finer your cream.

As the mixture cools it congeals and when it begins to harden you pour it off into empty cold cream jars and let it set. Should you want a perfumed cream it these are now out of fashion you have only to add 15 drops of perfumed oil, such as oil of violet or rose geranium, after your mixture has cooled a bit and while you are still beating it.

You can't really go wrong on this unless you either heat your ingredients too hot, too fast, or unless you leave them on the stove too long. I speak from long experience, having made up this formula some dozens of times.

This is so cheap you can use it lavishly.

visited the Linndbergh estate at Hopewell yesterday.

Prosecutor Marshall's office reported Dr. John F. Condon was en route to appear before the grand jury, but he was found at his Bronx home. It was learned he had received no such request.

Mrs. Bernard Finnigan, wife of the attorney for Stephen Spitz, convicted forger who claimed to have purchased $5,000 worth of Lindbergh ransom money, said Hoffman provided the money to obtain Spitz', release from a Chicago jail. Spitz was en route to New Jersey.

In the sassumed office, and not a sum of the temporary deputy clerk Wednesday shortly before noon.

Claims were allowed as noted on the claim docket.

The court recessed until Friday morning.

The Mercer county grand jury sought to compare the handwrit-ing of the Lindbergh ransom notes with that of Paul H. Wendel to help determine if his "confession" of the celebrated kidnap-murder was true or false. was true or false.

New York authorities searched Brooklyn to learn whether Wendel had been abducted there and mistreated to force his "confession." Stephen Spitz, Chicago forme convict, was reported planning to come east with a story that he bought "hot" Lindbergh money from a New Jersey gang.

Mrs. Hauptmann was to pay her

DRASTIC MEASURE TO CALL MEN FOR WORKS OR MILI-TARY SERVICE AT WILL

By ALVIN J. STEINKOPF . Associated Press Foreign Staff. VIENNA, April 1.—(P)—The fed-eral diet, by unanimous vote, to-day made "service to the Father-eral diet, by diffarming services to the Fatherland" compulsory, granting the government unlimited authority to conscript men for labor on public works projects and for military duties in emergencies.

The extraordinary law stated: "Any Austrian may be called upon to serve the Fatherland with or without arms, according to his physical and spiritual capacity."

The age range runs from 18 to 42 years.

(A spokesman for the Czech government in Praha said Czechoslovakia would protest against compulsory military service in Austria as a violation of the treaty of St. Germain with which Austria made her peace with the Austria made her peace with the allies at the end of the world war.
